Historic Oxford Schoolhouse Open to the Public

The Historic One-Room Oxford Schoolhouse, built in 1877 and located at Ironwoods Park (147th & Mission) in Leawood, Kansas, will be open to the public every Saturday and Sunday in March, April and May. Saturday hours are 11:00am - 2:00pm and Sunday hours are 1:00 – 4:00 pm, weather permitting.

Visit the school and talk with a costumed docent about the history of the Oxford School and the surrounding rural area.

The Oxford Schoolhouse is also available for elementary school classroom fieldtrips, and programs year-round to groups of any age by appointment any day or time, except during open house hours.

For more information please call (913) 663-9157.
