

ABOUT THE BIKE ROUTE

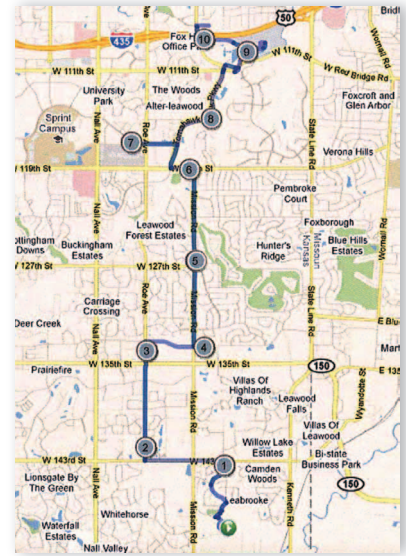

The bike ride will begin at Ironwoods Park. The ride route will be a combination of residential and commuter streets. While the pace will be at a beginner's level there will be riding on Roe Ave, Mission Road, 119th Street, and Tomahawk Creek Parkway.

Strong bicycle control skills and a comfort level riding with vehicular traffic is recommended. The course is mostly flat but there are a couple of long hills; one on Mission Road just before 119th Street and another at 117th Street and Roe Avenue. The ride pace will be approximately 8 – 10 miles per hour with a 5 to 10 minute stop at each art sculpture.

A representative of the Leawood Arts Council will be present at each site to provide information and answer questions. The ride will conclude at Mission Farms, home of Elite Cycling. Merchants at Mission Farms will be offering various discounts for ride participants.

Please Note: The numbers on this map indicate turning points and not sculpture locations.
