

“Chipmunk Chatter”

from Leawoody

January 2012

Happy New Year!

“Greetings from the burrow”!

While it may be winter and all is quiet in the parks, the staff is busy planning for the upcoming spring and summer seasons!

In this issue you will find some fun winter activities such as a Dino O'Dell CD Launch Party and the always popular Daddy Daughter Date Night.

The Sustainability Advisory Board is hosting its annual HOA meeting on Thursday, February 2.

Don't forget that the registration deadline for Spring Soccer is Wednesday, February 1.

Best,
Leawoody

Spring Soccer League

Registration Deadline - Wednesday, February 1

The Leawood Parks and Recreation Soccer league is a recreational league that stresses the development of individual skills with an emphasis on maximum participation and enjoyment of all players in a "non-competitive" atmosphere.

We offer small sided soccer leagues for pre-K (4 & 5 year olds) along with Kindergarten through 3rd grade children. Teams will play with 7 children on the field, including a goalie, for games.

Teams in 4th - 8th grade ideally consist of 14 to 18 players from the same school. The games are played on larger fields than the 7 vs. 7 group with teams consisting of 11 players on the field at a time.

Fee Includes: 9 game schedule, soccer jersey, and participation award

League play begins: March 24th

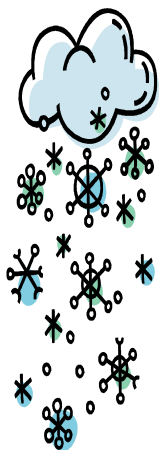

For further information please contact 913.339.6700 X 154

Registration form can be found online at <http://www.leawood.org/parks/pdf/soccer/soccerreg.pdf>
